Harford County Introduces New TV Show Showcasing Local Government

"Harford Happenings" to debut in November

(Bel Air, MD) - - Harford County Government has a new voice. It's called "Harford Happenings," a new television show airing exclusively on Harford Cable Network, hosted by Public Information Officer Sherrie Johnson.

Each month, Ms. Johnson will bring you an inside look at Harford County Government, its departments and people.

The goal of the show is to educate the public on the activities of their government. "We want to let people know the positive things that are happening in Harford County Government and I am so excited to have this opportunity to showcase our initiatives," said Sherrie Johnson, Spokesperson for Harford County Government.

Harford Cable Network is producing the show utilizing new technology, including the debut of its first virtual set.

Harford Happenings premieres in November with a look at tourism, recycling, and the budget process in Harford County. It will air on Harford Cable Network throughout November on Mondays and Thursdays at 1:30pm and Wednesdays and Saturdays at 7:00pm.

Harford Cable Network is Harford County's PEG (public access, education and government) channel. Operated by the County Council and overseen by an Advisory Board, HCN reaches more than 70,000 cable subscribers on Comcast channel 21, Armstrong channel 7 and Verizon FiOS channel 31. HCN programming is also available on Video on Demand by visiting <http://hcn.pegcentral.com>.

Visit the county's website at www.harfordcountymd.gov for more information and to view the archived shows after they have aired.
